Dear Mr. Bernstein:

This is in response to your letter of 7 October 1977, in which you request that copies of certain documents be provided you under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act. We are suspending your request until we received notification from you of your willingness to accept responsibility for all charges incurred in processing your request, or if there is an upper limit to what you are willing to pay. Be advised that all fees must be paid even if our record searches uncover no relevant documents, or if the documents found are deemed nonreleasable. A copy of the Agency's schedule of fees for services provided under the Freedom of Information Act is enclosed.

Upon receipt of your agreement, I shall arrange for a search of CIA files and shall be in further communication with you once the search has been completed and any records found reviewed for releasability under the Act. We will, however, initiate a preliminary survey to determine if the extent of the search will be as limited as you indicate it should be in your letter. We will provide you with an estimate of charges based upon the result of this survey.
